

TEEN SCENE

A social connection and life skills program for teens and young adults

Led by licensed occupational therapists and speech-language pathologists and assistants, the Teen Scene program at the Casa Colina Children's Services Center is a social connection and life skills program designed for teens and young adults between 13 and 22 years of age. Program levels consist of 12 weekly sessions that focus on:

- ◆ Entering and maintaining participation in social activities
- ◆ Body awareness and body language
- ◆ Functional communication
- ◆ Table manners and hygiene
- ◆ Personal space
- ◆ Problem solving and conflict resolution
- ◆ Cooperative planning
- ◆ Establishing and maintaining friendships
- ◆ Employment readiness
- ◆ Community outings

Our program is divided into two age-appropriate levels: 13-17 and 18-22 years old. All groups meet at Casa Colina Hospital and Centers for Healthcare in Pomona, Building 5, unless otherwise noted. Dates and times of all classes are subject to change. Please call the number below for more information.

- ◆ Tuesdays 4:00 to 6:00 p.m.
- ◆ Wednesdays 4:00 to 6:00 p.m.

This program accepts a variety of funding sources, including San Gabriel/Pomona Regional Center, most medical insurances, school districts, self-determination programs, or cash pay. For more information, please contact 909/596-7733, ext. 4200 or orenteria@casacolina.org.
