

Free Community Seminar

Taking the High Road: When Vision Starts to Affect Driving

Wednesday, February 19 from 6 to 7:30 p.m.

Casa Colina Hospital and Centers for Healthcare, Loverso Education Center, Building 1E
255 East Bonita Avenue (at Garey), Pomona, CA 91767

PRESENTED BY

Valerie Quan, OD, FAAO

Optometrist,
Casa Colina Neuro-Optometry Clinic
Associate Professor
at Western U

Briza Cynthia Brooks, OD

Optometrist,
Casa Colina Neuro-Optometry Clinic
Assistant Professor of Optometry,
WesternU

Amber Candelaria, OD

Neuro-Optometry
Rehabilitation/Low
Vision Resident
Eye Care Institute
at WesternU

Topics of discussion will include:

- The impact of normal aging on vision and driving
- Common challenges older drivers face while driving
- Low vision conditions and their effect on driving performance and road safety
- Enhancing vision performance through rehabilitation and lenses
- Low vision examinations and tools to maximize your vision for driving
- Question and answer session

Three easy ways to register!

- Call 866/724-4132
- Online at casacolina.org/communityevents
- Scan the QR code

Refreshments will be served and space is limited.

www.casacolina.org •

